The County Superintendent of Schools believes that effective administrative staff organization is essential to the mission and goals of the County Board of Education. The County Superintendent of Schools shall organize the staff of the San Diego County Office of Education in a manner best suited to achieve its purposes.

To ensure administrative staff effectiveness, the San Diego County Office of Education is organized into divisions and sections. Programs and special projects within divisions and sections contribute to the services provided by the San Diego County Office of Education. Through this administrative structure, the San Diego County Office of Education complies with legal mandates, provides educational leadership, offers cost-effective services, focuses available resources on schools and students, and answers the challenges and opportunities offered by district staff, community members, and other agencies throughout the county and region.
